

St James the Great RC (VA) Primary and Nursery School

Office Procedures Policy

Summer 2007

We are delighted to be able to share our Office Procedures Policy with you.

In line with our school's Mission Statement which states we "will foster a respect for staff and others in a climate of tolerance.

At St James the Great R.C. (VA) Primary School and Nursery we aim to give the highest standard of care to all members of our diverse community.

We are committed to providing quality education which meets the needs of our community. We are continually improving our provision and the ways they can be accessed.

Our care and standards are outlined within this Charter. We will update it regularly and we welcome your comments on the Charter and our performance.

WE WILL ALWAYS OFFER A WELCOMING AND PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

We will treat you fairly, delivering information without prejudice or bias, respecting your confidentiality and the trust you put in us.

We will communicate with you clearly and make it easy for you to communicate with us.

We will consult you regularly, welcome your involvement and act on your feedback wherever possible.

We will regularly review and publish our service standards and be accountable for our performance.
